

Dane County Awards Over $101,000 in Grants to Local Arts Organizations

Dane County Arts and Cultural Affairs Awards 54 Grants Supporting Arts and Cultural Activities Countywide with Public-Private Funds

Dozens of local organizations that promote community arts, history, and culture are receiving “Dane Arts” grants, County Executive Joe Parisi and the Dane County Arts and Cultural Affairs Commission announced today. 49 project grants totaling $95,578 and one short order grant totaling $1,000 were recently awarded in cycle 1 for “Dane Arts” grants in 2021. One $2,056 Capital Grant was awarded and three Blockstein awards at $1,000 each were awarded to organizations with projects that included political and civic engagement.

“Dane County is fortunate to be home to so many creative artists and institutions,” said Dane County Executive Joe Parisi. “Congratulations to this year’s recipients. We are proud to support our arts and culture communities through these grants, especially as our community works to recover from the far-reaching impacts of Covid-19.”

The “Dane Arts” grants are funded by county dollars in conjunction with private donations from the Endres Manufacturing Company Foundation, the Evjue Foundation, Inc., charitable arm of The Capital Times, the W. Jerome Frautschi Foundation, and the Pleasant T. Rowland Foundation.

The next project grant deadline is Sunday, August 1, 2021, 4:00pm.

Grant recipients are listed below this announcement

Multidisciplinary Arts/Culture

Disability Pride Madison – Fostering Writing and Cartooning in the Disability Community

Award: $1,560

In changing times, we revision smaller virtual events that create art celebrating the lives of people with disabilities. Through smaller workshops, we will foster creative ways to share the stories of our lives, break down and end internalized shame and stereotypes and build a stronger, more inclusive community for everyone.

Madison Reading Project – Summer Reading Books and Art Inspiration Kits

Award: $1,860

This grant request is to fund our “Summer Reading Books and Art Inspiration Kits” project, fortifying a unique partnership with Dane County-wide neighborhood centers and social services organizations (and several co-visit programs with MSCR’s Art Cart) where we bring culturally and linguistically diverse books, along with literacy-related creative art projects, to stimulate the love for reading and nurture a culture of in-home reading.

Music Theatre of Madison – An American Mythology: A Concept Album

Award: $742

Music Theatre of Madison will create a concept album called An American Mythology. This will explore mythological characters created by American society such as "The Billionaire," "The Outcast," "The Rioter," and more. All songs will be written by Wisconsin-based BBIPOC artists.

Music Theatre of Madison – The Children's Book Project

Award: $2,625

“The Land of the Gifted” is a musical children’s book that uses literature, art, storytelling, and music to teach themes of belonging, acceptance, and self-confidence. Written by a team of BBIPOC storytellers, the story will be accompanied with music that moves the narrative forward.

Overture Center for the Arts – OnStage Student Fieldtrips – 2021/22

Award: $3,150

Overture Center’s OnStage student field trips offer schools low-cost, school-day performances of international, national, and local artists performing shows specifically designed for Pre-K-12 audiences. Performances are tailored for the school-age audiences and integrate arts into curricula with Educator Resource Guides provided to each class to enhance the experience.

Rachel Werner – The Little Book Project WI (Edition #4)

Award: $1,215

The Little Book WI Project weaves together visual arts and literary work based on a central theme (like "advocacy" and "mental health") as an alternate mechanism for prompting "uncensored," public discourse by providing a platform for artists from a variety of disciplines, especially those who have encountered barriers to their work being accessible to a wider audience, to create art as commentary on social issues.

Richie Morales – Kachkaniraqmi - "We Still Exist"

Award: $2,493

“Kachkaniraqmi” in the Quechua language means “We Still Exist,” which encapsulates the miracle of our resilience as Indigenous peoples of the Americas despite colonization and oppression. Latinx artists Richie Morales, Natalia Hildner and Claudia Vaca perform a ritualistic homage to the living and dead as a cultural sacred space.

Sessions at McPike Park, Inc. – Five Lively August Sessions

Award: $1,800

The August Sessions at McPike Park are 5 evenings and week-end afternoon of local and national music, dance, & stand-up comedy. The free events enable the community to take in excellent mixed artistic performances from near and far.

Simpson Street Free Press – Writing Across the Curriculum and for Publication: The Arts and Local History in Dane County

Award: $2,100

SSFP's “Where in Dane County” series and local arts coverage bring history and the arts alive for young readers. This project acts as a portal; it's how we teach local history and the arts. These feature stories lead young readers to fascinating newspaper content that celebrates history, performance, and the arts in Dane County.

Wisconsin Union Theater – Black Arts Matter Festival

Award: $3,150

In April 2022, Wisconsin Union Theater and award-winning artist Shasparay will co-produce an expanded third Black Arts Matter Festival. The Festival is an interdisciplinary arts festival centering and celebrating Black art, and it consists of performances, discussions and educational programs in music, theater, dance, and poetry mediums.

Music

Bach Dancing & Dynamite Society – Brave New World: 2021 Chamber Music Festival

Award: $2,625

Bach Dancing & Dynamite Society combines musicians from around the country, varied repertoire, and delightful surprises to create "serious fun." We'll record four concerts for virtual release, present 13 musical pop-up concerts outdoors (socially distanced, etc.), and present over 50 virtual one-on-one musical conversations for our audience as well as patients in hospitals.
